Dear Friends,

The Song of the Stable Mouse from a Christmas card, Walter Drake Co.

‘Twas the very first Christmas and throughout the house
There was no room to share – even for one small mouse.
So he went to the stable where the oxen were fed
To get straw from the manger to fashion a bed.

But alas the small creature found Someone asleep
On the straw where the oxen and donkeys and sheep
Would come for their food – yet stranger indeed
Was the fact shepherds knelt right where animals feed.

The voices of angels dance on the night air,
The mouse knew heaven’s music, though he’d never been there
And though his mouse heart was incredibly small
It filled with such joy it could not hold it all.

The mouse had to join Nature’s glorious song
And his wholehearted “Squeak” could be heard right along
With the chorus of angels, the cows gentle “moo”
And the wonder of shepherds who sang the Good News.

For it doesn’t matter if you’re big or small,
If you’re born to sing solo or can’t sing at all,
As Christmas draws near it is your time to sing
From a heart filled with praise for our Savior, our King!

Your Sister in Christ,

Stephanie C. Flynn

Monthly Articles About Our Beautiful Queen Lake in Phillipston

by Queen Lake Assoc. Board of Director, Claire Adomaitis

Article 23

The Annual Queen Lake Draw Down will soon reach the limit that can be accomplished. The boards will be replaced at the dam one board at a time at the discretion of the Dam Committee headed up by Don Wilson.

Lake level drawdowns are conducted for a variety of reasons. The purposes may include protection of the shoreline from the erosion of high water, control of aquatic weeds near the shore, reducing the adverse effects of winter ice on the shoreline and shorefront structures.

The origin of this practice was in the earliest days of settlement when the water stored in lakes was released to power mills downstream. Starting in the late fall and ending in late spring, the rate of runoff from storms is greatly increased.

High water conditions in combination with heavy winds cause erosion of the shoreline above the normal water line. Drawdowns lower the water level so that the erosive forces of waves are acting below the normal shoreline. Aquatic weeds are commonly found in the shallow water near the shoreline. The effectiveness of drawdowns is dependent upon a deep frost and dewatering of the sediments.

Lake ice can reach a thickness of two feet or more. The force of massive ice is exerted in three ways. Under the warming spring sun, as the lake ice expands, it can exert 2,000 or more lbs of force per square inch on anything in its path including docks, walls and the natural shoreline.

Winter is upon us and snow will be falling and the lake will be freezing over for skating, ice fishing, cross country skiing, etc. Please enjoy this season and be safe!

Anyone with ideas, please email me at: nikiyasara@aol.com

Please come join us as the Historical Society of Phillipston once again sponsors the Memory Tree on the common, an event that has become a meaningful way to begin the holiday season. After the tree is lighted, we will move to the church for the reading of the names of loved ones who have passed away, family members and friends who are serving in the armed forces, and the happy events in our lives that we would like to share by lighting a light on the tree for each.

The annual “Citizen of the Year” for public service to the town will be announced. The recipient of the Signature Quilt that celebrates the town’s 225th Anniversary will be drawn. Then we’ll be entertained by the beautiful tones of the Hardwick Handbell Choir directed by Cindy Baird.

Light refreshments will be served in the vestry. While we are eating and listing the winning names of the Historical society’s 2011 raffle will be pulled.

It will be a lovely evening that you won’t want to miss.

Thank you to Richard Hamel, Sterling Whiting and Jean Stanley for fulfilling my request for old town reports. The Town of Phillipston is on record with the State Library of Massachusetts at the state House in Boston as having copies of all annual reports for the town on file.

Should anyone visti the State Library and wish to review our town reports they are all there, from 1865 to 2010. the Town Clerk’s office also has a full set as well as the Selectmen’s Office whose job it is to bind the reports into ten year increments. Again thank you to all!
